CREDITO TERRITORIAL

Printed by Lit. San Martín in Buenos Aires. Dated June 1877.

This is not paper money per se, but rather a bearer security that can be used when paying a kind of property tax. They had an interest of 6% per annum. The titles are stamped on the reverse with an oval wet stamp with, in highlight, CONTADURIA GENERAL / PROVINCIA DE ENTRE RIOS and in the inner oval, 1880. It is possible that this stamp was used to cancel the titles returned to the province's counters, but this remains to be clarified.
